

"Saved Her Life." STILL A SEPARATIST

Juan Gualberto Gomez Declares Himself After a Demonstration.

THE DESTINY OF CUBA

Is Only Independence and It Can Only Be Secured by Perfect Union, by Forgetting Enmities and Obliterating Personalities—Yellow Fever Condition in Havana.

Havana, July 13.—At the meeting held in the Payret theater, after the street demonstration and parade in his honor, Juan Gualberto Gomez was himself the principal speaker. In the course of a long address dealing with the reasons for beginning the war against Spain, he said: "I am now, as I always have been, a separatist; and I will demand the separation that I asked before the war, not only separation from Spain, but from any and all other nations. People only begin a revolution when this is absolutely necessary to life and progress. If a superior force deters them before their object is attained, there is merely the question of delay."

"The revolution will inevitably return. Nations, like stars, have their seasons of eclipse, but, following their orbits, they emerge and accomplish their final destiny. The destiny of Cuba is only independence. The basic ideas of the revolution were no mystery, and therefore, a synopsis now, which would really remind us of past suffering and of incidents only to be recalled with horror, is unnecessary. Still we would return to those direful days if it had to be. Honor is as much a necessity in national life as food in the life of the individual and it ought to be insured if possible, even though the attempt may result in catastrophe and death."

"Such disasters we can avoid by perfect union, by raising our voices to declare that this country is ours and that we want it for ourselves, by forgetting our enmities, by obliterating personalities, by drawing a line through our terrible past and by devoting ourselves to the future."

"We should give due thanks to the Americans, whose progress and power inspire our admiration, but this does not mean that we should resign ourselves to a tutelage to be exercised over us. Let us make the same statement to the United States that the American colonies made to England when they declared in 1776 that the Americans owned North America."

The entire speech was in this spirit. The local press praises it as "the most important occurrence since Jan. 1." Most of those present at the meeting were negroes and many of the banners borne in the procession showed the legend "Independence or Death."

The published yellow fever reports of the last few weeks have caused the department much annoyance. No attempt whatever had been made by General Ludlow or the sanitary authorities to maintain secrecy regarding the facts. On the contrary the fullest publicity is given, every hospital is opened to inspection, all inquiries by properly accredited correspondents are promptly answered and every effort to discover suspected cases is welcomed and facilitated.

The total number of cases of fever in Havana this year is 17, including three brought here in ships. For these latter the city is not answerable. The total number of deaths for the year from yellow fever is seven. General Ludlow and Major Davis do not claim perfect immunity for the department, but they both believe everything practicable has been done to ward off the disease and that, too, with a very considerable amount of success.

Headquarters Removed.

Santiago, July 13.—The work of moving headquarters from the old building to the new one, at the corner of the city, is now being completed.

Mrs. Lily Heckert, of Bartlesville, Cherokee Nat., Ind. Ty., writes: "I had a severe attack of LaGrippe and at the end of four months, in spite of all physicians, friends and good nursing could do, my lungs and nervous system were so completely wrecked, my life was despaired of, my friends giving me up. I could only sleep by the use of opiates. My lungs and heart pained me terribly and my condition was most aggravating. I could not lie in one position but a short time and not on my left side at all. My husband brought me Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure and I began taking them. When I had taken a half bottle of each I was much better and continuing persistently I took about a dozen bottles and was completely restored to health to the surprise of all."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle free, or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

Dr. R. V. Pierce is and for over thirty years has been, chief consulting physician at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. Thousands of women have written to him describing their symptoms, and, on following the advice he gives freely, have become well, strong and happy. Many sensitively modest women write to Dr. Pierce and so avoid the disagreeable questioning, examinations and local treatment so generally insisted upon by physicians. Dr. Pierce's medicines cure you in the privacy of your home, and Mrs. Heckert's case is only one of thousands that have been cured after the doctors failed.

ing the division headquarters of the troops was completed last evening. No soldiers are now here except the company at Morro castle. Many Americans have been arrested under the terms of General Wood's order. Thousands of Cubans are arriving with arms. They will receive three rations, but must wait at least a month for payment.

ASK A PAROLE

Attorneys of Banker Spaulding Make Application to Pardon Board. Springfield, Ill., July 13.—An effort is now making before the board of pardons by the attorneys of Charles W. Spaulding, the ex-Chicago banker and former treasurer of the University of Illinois, who was convicted of embezzlement, to secure a parole for their client. Several months ago a petition for a pardon was filed with the board. The principal grounds on which clemency was asked was that the prisoner was broken in health, and could survive prison life only a few months. The matter was never heard by the board, and last week, while the members of the commission were in Joliet, the matter of paroling the prisoner was submitted to them.

Constantinople, July 13.—The United States minister here, Mr. Strauss, has urgently invited Admiral Dewey to visit him. In the event of his acceptance, the British special service steamer Inogen will proceed to the Mediterranean to escort the admiral to this port.

GETS A PENSION

Though Declared Dead by the United States Court at St. Louis.

Washington, July 13.—This government, with quarterly regularity, is paying pensions to a man who has been declared dead by a United States court, and whose life insurance has been paid to his widow—that is, his widow de jure. The Wackerle case is stranger than fiction. William Wackerle of Company H, Ninth regiment, Minnesota infantry, still lives, in the opinion of the pension bureau. William Wackerle, same company and same regiment, was killed in a railroad accident as long ago as 1872, according to the verdict and the decision in the United States circuit court at St. Louis 20 years ago.

Basing his claim upon the evidence and the finding of the court that her husband was dead, Walberga Wackerle, the widow de jure, has been trying to get a pension.

The case has been investigated again and again. Special examiners have visited various parts of the country and have collected voluminous testimony. The conclusion arrived at is that William Wackerle still lives, and the government continues to pay the pension to him, denying the claim of the alleged widow. A decision to this effect was made on July 1, 1894. The persistent widow has continued to press the matter, appealing the case through all of the stages provided by law. She carried it to the assistant secretary of the interior, Webster Davis, and he has declared that William Wackerle is still alive.

"Her husband," said Mr. Davis, "is now on the rolls as a pensioner. Before his name was restored, his case was specially examined, and his identity as the soldier who served in said company and regiment was satisfactorily established."

"The soldier," continued Mr. Davis, "gives a satisfactory account of himself and his whereabouts, and the date of his earliest recollection up to 1888 and subsequently. He bears a good reputation for truthfulness and sobriety. His signatures to his application for a pension, May 27, 1864, to the various vouchers for pension, to his payroll in service, to his two applications for life insurance in 1870, and to his subsequent affidavits and pension application have been carefully compared and shown to be the signatures of the same person. I am of the opinion that the evidence in this case fails to show the death of the soldier."

Mrs. Wackerle, in her suit for the insurance, produced a skeleton which her witnesses said was that of William Wackerle, killed on the railroad in 1872. She had much other evidence which was sufficient to satisfy the jury that her claim against the insurance company was just.

Mrs. Wackerle not only got the insurance money, but she collected damages from the railroad for the death of her husband.

Today she is a widow de jure and her husband is a living pensioner de facto.

GEN. JOE WHEELER

Goes to the Philippine Islands on an Unknown Mission.

HE WILL REPORT TO OTIS

Probably Will Make an Expert Report on the Strength of Forces to Which Our Troops Are Opposed, as Otis and Lawton Have Left Authorities in Ignorance on This Point.

Chicago, July 13.—General Joseph Wheeler passed through Chicago yesterday bound for the Philippines on an unknown mission. As he put it himself: "I am ordered merely to report to General Otis and do not know what I shall have to do when I get there. I expect to return by December, when congress meets. Being in the army, I felt I had no right to remain idle all summer and fall and asked to be sent on active service."

The only intimation General Wheeler gave as to the purpose of his mission was in reply to an inquiry as to what he thought of the situation in the island acquisitions. He said: "I do not understand and no one in Washington seems to understand why it is that our people over there seem to have no idea of the forces to which they are opposed. General Otis makes no estimate and you will have observed that neither General Lawton nor General MacArthur make mention of those forces in their reports."

Asked if he were sent by President McKinley to make an expert report on the situation the general replied: "I am merely to report to General Otis." Miss Annie Wheeler, the general's daughter, accompanies him to Manila. She goes out as a Red Cross nurse and intends to remain so long as health permits or her services are needed.

General Wheeler reiterated his statement that he would not give up his seat in congress. "That was settled in the last congress," he said, "but it probably will have to be settled again by the next. At the last session a majority of the Democrats and many Republicans voted for me and I hope they will do it again."

WANT WHEELER'S SEAT

Agitation Started to Have the Governor Declare a Vacancy.

Birmingham, Ala., July 13.—Since General Joseph Wheeler has been ordered to the Philippines a renewal of the discussion about declaring his seat in congress vacant from the Eighth district has been begun. Last year, when General Wheeler was in Cuba, Attorney General Fitts rendered an opinion for the governor to the effect that General Wheeler, by accepting a command in the army, had vacated his seat, and it was within the power of the governor to order an election to fill the vacancy.

Commenting on the sentiment then and now, the Montgomery Journal, which is looked upon as the organ of the state administration, says: "Then there was some sympathy for the cause in which Wheeler was engaged; then a war with a foreign power was in progress, and the country was in a flame of patriotic fervor and enthusiasm over the contest. But there is no such sentiment today as that which then swept over the country, and the people are in a more practicable mood and are inclined to look at things in a more practical way. There are many people who would particularly approve the act if the governor were to order an election in the Eighth district to elect a congressman, and the governor will no doubt be urged to take some prompt action in the premises."

WILL NOT RESIGN

Senator Jones Will Retain Chairmanship of Democratic Committee.

Washington, July 13.—The Post today says: Senator Jones of Arkansas will not resign his position as chairman of the Democratic national committee. This can be stated authoritatively, once for all. Two letters have been received from him in this city in which he not only makes clear his intention of remaining at the head of the committee, but outlines work upon which he intends to engage as soon as he returns to the United States. His letters were dated at towns in Switzerland and reported the senator as improving in health. He was then preparing to go to Geneva to spend a week or more, and he said, "I hope to come home entirely well."

He will reach this country about Sept. 1, will spend that month at Lake Minnetonka with his married daughter and will then go to Arkansas, remaining there until congress convenes. It is not known here whether Senator Jones will send a letter to be read at the meeting of the national committee in Chicago next week, but if he does not the members of the committee will be made acquainted with the contents of the letters which have already been received here.

KENTUCKY POLITICS

What Republican Platform Favors. McKinley and Bradley Indorsed.

Lexington, Ky., July 13.—The Republican state convention yesterday completed all its work except the adoption of a platform and the nomination of a ticket. It would have nominated a ticket last night, but for the fact that it became entangled in mistakes and misunderstandings regarding the adoption of the report on rules.

The committee on resolutions was ready to report last night, when adjournment was had. There is nothing unusual in the resolutions except that civil service reform is not indorsed in the plank commending President McKinley for his recent modification of the civil service rules. The platform favors the prosecution of the war in the Philippines, to a successful termination and the final settlement of all questions relating to the new possessions. The resolutions strongly indorse the administrations of President McKinley and Governor Bradley and the services of Senator Deboe.

THURSDAY, JULY 13, 1899.

DECATUR county papers say a movement is on foot to bring out the "king of the push" Allen W. Clark for Congress. More competition for Overmyer who recently became a "statesman" after so many years presidency of a National bank.

The health officer advises the cutting of all weeds about premises as there is a great deal of complaint of snakes harboring among the weeds this year. The Street Commissioner is doing the work on the alleys and gutters and the property holders should supplement the work thoroughly.

The following editorial, which recently appeared in the Dayton Journal, shows what the people of Ohio think of our young senator:

"Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, proposes to know whom he is talking about and who are the Filipinos when he rises in his place in the Senate next winter to explain why he is an expansionist, and why he boldly defined the administration's Philippine policy from the outset. Perhaps the youngest of the senators, his reputation as a gifted and able orator has preceded him, and, as is usual, he will be closely observed and much will be expected of him. When he returns, to take his place on the rostrum, he will be the only member of the Senate or House who will have visited these new possessions on a personal inspection tour. He may come back convinced of his error, or he may come back filled with a conviction of the righteousness of his first stand. Whatever the result of his visit, he will hold a prominent position before Congress, and every speech he makes will be attentively heeded and assiduously read. With his gift of oratory, and other splendid attainments, the new strength of knowledge which never fails of power will make him a dangerous man to contradict. He will be known as the 'Philippine Specialist.'"

KISSING BUG'S BITE.

Remedy Suggested by Cincinnati Health Officer.

Health Officer Tenny gave the Times-Star Monday a remedy for the victims of the kissing bug. He says that a person bitten by this bug should apply a solution of aqua-ammonia at once. This will relieve the sting and prevent inflammation. After this, if relief is not gained, turpentine applications should be used. "Of course," said Dr. Tenny, "a physician must be called in a severe case, in addition to this treatment. The same treatment used in a sting of honey bees will bring relief."—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Grain-O Brings Relief.

To the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, effects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be otherwise.

FREE STREET FAIR.

All Former Attractions to be Outdone this Year.

The committee on the free street fair has reached the point in their work where they can say definitely that Seymour will have another free street fair this year. They have the preliminary arrangements in good working order and will offer attractions this year that will surpass all former efforts.

Seymour has attained a widespread reputation all over the country for the lovely of her street fairs, a complimentary notice appearing in this month's Review of Reviews with a half tone illustration of South Chestnut street. Everywhere there have been words of wonder and praise for what has been accomplished, and crowds of increasingly large size have attended the two fairs which have been given. This year the committee will maintain the reputation that has been gained for the best street fair in southern Indiana. This means that they will eclipse the efforts of the last two years in every respect.

The committee on the attractions is hard at work and will spare no pains to keep up Seymour's record.

Let everyone lend all assistance in their power and Seymour will maintain the good name she has won for energetic and progressive citizens.

The officers and committees remain the same as last year. T. S. Blish, president; J. J. Shiel, vice president; Geo. Clark, secretary; Dr. G. G. Graessle, treasurer.

The date for the fair will be the same as for the last two years, Sept. 25-30.

Burglary at Mooney.

Monday night a robbery was committed at Clear Spring in which Jacob Hinkle was relieved of a fine gold watch and $21 in money. The robbery was committed by taking a glass from the window, where the bed-todd, with Mr. Hinkle's trousers hanging on the bed post carrying the valuables taken. The pocket book containing the money was put back into the pocket. Wm. Shutt's blood hounds were immediately sent for but could be given no start. —Brownstown Telephone.

Just before noon Prof. T. S. Sanders who has been suffering with typhoid fever became delirious and while talking to his physician he ran from the house up the street, stopping in front of George Clark's residence on north Walnut street. Here he sank from exhaustion and was placed on a bed and carried back to his home.

A BLOOD STAINED HORSE.

The Effect It Had in Subduing a Party of Ruffians.
For sheer, cool nerve and absolute, inspired genius in dealing with men, commend me to Clarence King, the geologist, if a story that is told about him be true. Mr. King, the tale runs, was in the field all one summer with a government expedition. The field happened to be in the far west and the men he was compelled to employ as assistants were a band of cheerful ruffians, half breed desperadoes and "greasers" camps. Bad as they were, they worked well, and they were indispensable.

One night one of them deserted. Mr. King knew what that meant. It meant a stampede and an empty camp if the deserter were allowed to go unpunished. He chose a companion on whose silence he could depend, mounted and took the trail. On the third day the deserter was overtaken, captured and landed in a convenient fort. The runaway had subsisted for the three days of his liberty on such game and birds as he could kill. His horse was white, and as he rode often with prey slung to the saddle, the animal was streaked and stained with blood.

The man being in safe keeping, Mr. King and his companion rode back to camp leading the crimson streaked horse, with all the deserter's belongings strapped to his back. They spoke no word of the missing man to his former companions, but dismounted in grim silence. The men endured the pangs of curiosity as long as they could. Then they sent a committee to Mr. King to make inquiries about the fugitive. Mr. King gave a meaning glance at the blood stained horse and made answer briefly.

"He is gone," he said impressively. "He is gone where anybody else who tries to desert will go too."

Half breeds and "greasers" gasped, and from that day on no one of them all ever tried to desert.—Washington Post.

Coarse kindness is at least no more than coarse anger, and in all private quarrels the duller nature is triumphant by reason of its dullness.—George Eliot.

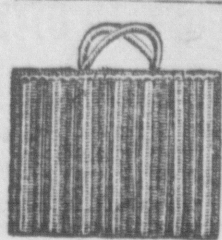

After a man has satisfied himself that it is right to tell a white lie he usually gets color blind.—Detroit Journal.

Exodus to Southern Indiana.

The exodus from the gas belt has begun. The coming of a manufacturer from Anderson to Southern Indiana to develop the coal mines is significant of the change that is coming in the geographical position of the manufacturers of the state. Ultimately the gas belt must yield to Southern Indiana, and to our mind, the time is not far distant.

New industries are no longer going to the gas belt, and before long the boom towns of Northern Indiana will lose ground. Southern Indiana will be the gainer.—Evansville Courier.

Beautiful Indian Springs.

This property has lately been secured by the Southern Indiana Hotel Co. The old hotel has been demolished and a new one is now in course of erection. This will be a magnificent stone structure with all modern improvements; but will not be ready this season.

There has always been more or less excursion business and parties who go there to enjoy the water. The dance hall, spring house, summer pavilion, bowling alley and club houses have been left standing and may be used by excursionists and picnic parties.

To accommodate this business the Southern Indiana Railway will put in rates for excursion parties and picnics; and has also arranged special Sunday train schedule, giving patrons along the entire length of the line an opportunity to spend the day at the Springs and return home the same evening.
